

Non-Symbolic Bible References to Stars

Gen. 1:16	God made the stars in part to serve as signs to regulate biological clocks of complex life
Gen. 15:5	Stars are countless.
Gen. 22:17	Stars are as numberless as the sand grains on the seashore.
Gen. 26:4	Abraham's descendents will be as countless as the stars.
Ex. 32:13	Abraham's descendents will be as countless as the stars.
Deut. 1:10	Israelites are as numerous as the stars you see in the sky.
Deut. 4:19	Do not worship the stars.
Deut. 10:22	Israelites are as numerous as the stars you see in the sky.
Deut. 28:62	Israelites are as numerous as the stars you see in the sky, but will become few in number.
1 Chr. 27:23	The Lord promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars in the sky.
Neh. 9:23	God made the Israelites as numerous as the stars in the sky.
Job 9:7	God sometimes seals off the light of the stars.
Job 22:12	Stars are very far away. See how distant they are.
Job 28:5	The stars are not pure (perfect).
Ps. 8:3	God set the stars in their places.
Ps. 136:9	The stars govern the night, testifying of God's forever enduring love.
Ps. 147:4	God determines the number of stars. He has assigned a name to each one.
Ps. 148:3	All the stars praise God.
Eccl. 12:2	The stars will become dark.
Is. 13:10	On the day of the Lord the stars will not show their light.
Is. 14:13	Heaven lies beyond the stars.
Jer. 31:35	God appointed the stars and decreed when they will shine.
Ezek. 32:7	God will darken the stars on the day of Egypt's judgment.
Joel 2:10, 3:15	When the Lord returns with his army, the stars will not shine.
Amos 5:8	God made the Pleiades and Orion.
Nah. 3:16	Ninevah's merchants number more than the stars in the sky. (hyperbole)
Matt. 2	A star's appearance in the sky confirmed to the magi that the Messiah had arrived on Earth.
Matt. 24:29	When Christ returns, the stars will fall from the sky.
Mark 13:25	When Christ returns, the stars will fall from the sky.
Luke 21:25	When Christ returns, there will be signs in the stars.
1 Cor. 15:41	Each star is different from every other star.
Heb. 11:12	Stars are as countless as the sand grains on the seashore.
Rev. 6:13	"Stars" in the sky will fall to earth.
Rev. 8:10-11	A great "star" named Wormwood will fall on a third of the rivers and springs and make those waters bitter.
Rev. 8:12	Light from the stars will be dimmed by one third.