

End of the Universe Passages

P. 102:25-27 In the beginning you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands. They will perish, but you remain; they will wear out like a garment. Like clothing you will change them and they will be discarded. But you remain the same, and your years will never end.

Is. 34:4 All the stars of the heavens will be dissolved and the sky rolled up like a scroll; all the starry host will fall like withered leaves from the vine, like shriveled figs from the fig tree.

Is. 51:6 Lift upon your eyes to the heavens, look at the earth beneath; the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment and its inhabitants die like flies. But my salvation will last forever, my righteousness will never fail.

Is. 65:17 Behold, I will create new heavens and a new earth. The former things will not be remembered, nor will they come to mind.

Is. 66:22 "The new heavens and the new earth that I make will endure before me," declares the Lord.

Matt. 24:35 Heaven and earth will pass away.

Heb. 1:10-12 In the beginning, O Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of your hands. They will perish, but you remain; they will all wear out like a garment. You will roll them up like a robe; like a garment they will be changed. But you remain the same, and your years will never end.

2 Peter 3:7 The present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

2 Pet. 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything in it will be burned up.
